Dear Friends, Colleagues and Contributors,

This is to announce the release of the 2010 issue of The International Newsletter of Communist Studies Online. The online edition can be freely downloaded from the INCS website at <http://www.mzes.uni-mannheim.de/projekte/ incs/onlinenewsletter.html

>. The abridged 50 pages version has been published as usual as a supplement of the Jahrbuch für historische Kommunismusforschung (Yearbook for historical studies on Communism) published by Aufbau-Verlag, Berlin (see: <<https://www.stiftung-aufarbeitung.de/Jahrbuch/> >). The 2010 issue contains 300 pages of articles, materials and web-resources concerning communist studies and related subjects (see table of contents below). We would like to thank the contributors from many countries and world regions who made this possible.

Since the editor Bernhard H. Bayerlein has been appointed associated researcher at the Center for Research on Contemporary History (Zentrum für Zeithistorische Forschung, Germany), The International Newsletter Of Communist Studies Online, in near future, will be hosted by the ZZF server in Potsdam, Germany. We shall inform you about this as soon as the transfer of the website has been accomplished.

This is also a call for news and articles for the 2011 issue of the International Newsletter. We are awaiting your suggestions, articles, contributions and all kind of informational data on the various newsletter sections. The deadline for the print edition of the International Newsletter, to be released in The Jahrbuch für Historische Kommunismusforschung, is the 15th of September, 2010. The deadline for the online edition is the 31st of December, 2010. We strongly advice you to follow the submission guidelines, which can be consulted at <<http://www.mzes.uni-mannheim.de/projekte/incs/guidelines.html> > ensuring a speedy editing/ layout process, making the next issue to be released with a less delay. Also please note that unsolicited reviews will not be accepted.

With kind regards
 and best wishes for your ongoing projects,

Bernhard H. Bayerlein, Executive Editor
 Gleb J. Albert, Assistant Editor
