

Veerle Solia

Van: Equal Times Campaigns <info@equaltimes.org>
Verzonden: donderdag 30 mei 2013 10:01
Aan: Veerle Solia
Onderwerp: Video: Watch professional footballer Ouaddou tell FIFA to stop the World Cup of slavery

Hello,

This week the FIFA Congress is meeting on the island paradise of Mauritius.

We're here to make sure FIFA knows that unless Qatar reforms its treatment of workers, the 2022 World Cup vote must be re-run.

Defender Abdes Ouaddou played 57 times for Morroco, as well as AS Nancy-Lorraine and Fulham but was treated like a slave in Qatar.

He spoke exclusively to the re-run the vote campaign. Watch and share his video.

Ouaddou was threatened in Qatar and told that he wouldn't get justice because Qatar is very powerful in FIFA.

If you can't see the subtitles please click on the CC button on the bottom right of the YouTube player.

A global movement of workers and football fans can be more powerful than one country in the fight for justice and freedom for workers and players in Qatar.

This Friday, with workers and fans from Mauritius, we'll be at the entrance to the FIFA congress to tell FIFA to stop the World Cup of shame in Qatar, unless workers and players are treated with dignity.

Thanks for your support,

Philippe and Gemma

Re-run the vote campaign team

PS You can help us take over FIFA congress twitter stream by tweeting, Qatar 2022, Don't shame the game #FIFACongress Join us at rerunthevote.org