EUROPEAN TRADE UNION
CONFEDERATION HOLDS ITS
EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEETING
ON 1 AND 2 JUNE IN BRUSSELS

28 May 2010

The European trade unions will meet for the Executive Committee [1] of the European Trade Union Confederation

(ETUC) in Brussels on 1 and 2 June. They will debate a number of important current issues that affect European citizens. The meeting comes just ahead of the meeting of the European social partners with the European Commission President.

A number of subjects will be on the agenda, including: the worsening of the crisis in Europe and its consequences, the state of play in terms of unemployment and the social crisis, the situation of the euro and financial regulation.

The Committee will also debate: revision of the Working Time Directive, public services, management and financing of climate policies and the simplification of legislation (Better Regulation).

The ETUC Executive Committee meeting will be followed, on 4 June, by a meeting of the European social partners with the President of the European Commission, Mr Barroso, to discuss the crucial question of the social dimension of the crisis.

[1] The Executive Committee meets four times a year. It is composed of representatives from the affiliated organisations in proportion to their membership. If necessary, decisions can be taken by a qualified two-thirds majority vote. It is the Executive Committee which decides on the mandate and the composition of the delegations for negotiations with the European employers' organisations in the European Social Dialogue, and which assesses the results.

The European Trade Union Confederation (ETUC) speaks with a single voice, on behalf of the common interests of workers, at European level. Founded in 1973, it now represents 82 trade union organisations in 36 European countries, plus 12 industry-based federations.

The ETUC is also on Twitter, YouTube and Flickr. If you would like to subscribe to the ETUC newsletter, please click here.
