ETUC GENERAL SECRETARY TOGHETER WITH SPANISH PEOPLE AGAINST AUSTERITY

20 July 2012

Bernadette Ségo, General Secretary of the European Trade Union Confederation (ETUC) was yesterday in Madrid to underline the European trade union movement's support to Spanish workers and citizens demonstrating against the harshest budgetary cuts in Spain's democratic history.

About 800.000 people followed the call of trade unions and several civil society organisations to protest against the government's latest austerity measures. Speaking at the press conference before the demonstration, Bernadette Ségo said: "The government's measures are unfair and useless as they will not provide any solution to the crisis. These budgetary cuts, which have also strongly hit Italy, Portugal, Greece and Ireland, are merely ideological and are undermining social cohesion. The ETUC will continue to stand together with the people which are affected hard by austerity measures. The Spanish organisations have planned other mobilisations in August and September. We will be there again to support them".

The ETUC exists to speak with a single voice, on behalf of the common interests of workers, at European level. Founded in 1973, it now represents 85 trade union organisations in 36 European countries, plus 10 industry-based federations.
