“HIGH NOON FOR SOCIAL EUROPE”

EUROPEAN TRADE UNION LEADERS WANT A CHANGE OF COURSE

On 5 and 6 June, trade union leaders from across Europe will gather in Dublin for the conference “High noon for social Europe” organised by the European Trade Union Confederation (ETUC). This major event - which will be accessible to the press - will focus on the need of a strong social Europe for workers and citizens.

At a time of crisis and social emergency, European trade unions demand a radical change of course and propose their alternatives to restore growth, tackle unemployment and build a fairer Europe.

Bernadette Ségal, General Secretary of the ETUC and David Begg, General Secretary of the Irish Congress of Trade Unions (ICTU), will hold an opening press conference before the launch of the conference, on 5th June at Dublin Castle.

Press conference details and final programme will be available soon.

Do not miss the opportunity to meet European trade union leaders: Save this date!

The European Trade Union Confederation (ETUC) exists to speak with a single voice, on behalf of the common interests of workers, at European level. Founded in 1973, it now represents 85 trade union organisations in 36 European countries, plus 10 industry-based federations. The ETUC is also on Facebook, Twitter, YouTube and Flickr.
