The ETUC calls for respect for fundamental human rights in global migration policies

The European Trade Union Confederation (ETUC) urges the European Union (EU) to advocate respect for the fundamental human rights of migrants in the United Nations (UN) High Level Dialogue on Migration and Development.

The ETUC and the International Trade Union Confederation (ITUC) sent a joint letter to Herman Van Rompuy, President of the European Council, warning him that when the EU takes the floor at the UN High Level Dialogue on Migration and Development on 3 and 4 October it cannot be hesitant in calling for respect for the most important conventions and international standards that grant protection to migrants globally.

"The EU must be anchored to its fundamental values when speaking in international governmental assemblies. Migrants' rights are mainly those set out in international conventions such as the UN Convention on the Protection of Rights of All Migrants and their Families and the ILO Standards" said Bernadette Segol, ETUC General Secretary.

The European Trade Union Confederation (ETUC) exists to speak with a single voice, on behalf of the common interests of workers, at European level. Founded in 1973, it now represents 85 trade union organisations in 36 European countries, plus 10 industry-based federations. The ETUC is also on Facebook, Twitter, YouTube and Flickr.
