

Foyer nieuwsbrief internationaal (Verzending datum: 29/05/2012)

Welcome to the April-May edition of Foyer's international newsletter!

Getting your communication right is always important, and in the diverse society that is Brussels it is a major challenge. In this issue we look at various ways to facilitate intercultural communication: improving one's foreign language skills, plurilingual educational projects, and intercultural mediation. And last but certainly not least: sometimes cooking together can work wonders to break the ice!

Language portfolio: an active approach to foreign language skills

Foyer's innovative portfolio helps language learners set their goals.

Lees meer

Dads cooking with gas in Brussels!

Cooking a hearty meal while discussing fatherhood issues: men can multitask!

Lees meer

Foyer welcomes Mandarin-speaking Intercultural Mediator

Plenty of work to do for Jie Zhang, Foyer's newest intercultural mediator.

Lees meer

“Plurilingualism speaks for itself”

A new Foyer publication provides an overview of 30 years of plurilingual educational projects in Brussels

Lees meer
