

Van: International Institute of Social History <noreply=iisg.nl@mail49.us1.mcsv.net>
namens International Institute of Social History <noreply@iisg.nl>
Verzonden: woensdag 6 februari 2013 15:35
Aan: Veerle Solia
Onderwerp: IISH Newsletter February 2013

international institute of social history

Newsletter | February 2013

New Survey of Asian Collections in the IISH

It's there, the 4th edition of our Asia Collections Guide!

This edition is an update of the 2007 edition and offers a rough survey of all IISH collections with a substantial Asian interest.

Read more

Global Labour History Worldwide

The leading French social history journal Le Mouvement Social has embraced IISH's Global Labour History approach too.

Global Labour History first hit the ground in India and Brazil and somewhat later in South Africa. Portugal, Belgium, Austria, Sweden and England.

Read more

Dissertation on Kees Boeke

In January 2013, Daniela Hooghiemstra defended her dissertation De geest in dit huis is liefderijk. Het leven en De Werkplaats van Kees Boeke (1884-1966) at Amsterdam University.

Her research is mainly based on the archives of Kees Boeke and his wife Beatrice at the IISH. Kees Boeke is known as an innovator of education, peace activist and founder of 'De Werkplaats' in Bilthoven, an alternative school where the Dutch princesses were educated.

Read more

Upcoming Conferences and Workshops

- Conference: Selling Sex in the City
- Conference Combined Approaches to Conflicts
- Workshop: Global History of Shipbuilding Labour

Read more

Follow us on    or forward to a friend

MailChimp

unsubscribe from this list | update subscription preferences