

Van: International Institute of Social History <noreply=iisg.nl@mail227.atl121.mcsv.net>
Verzonden: namens International Institute of Social History <noreply@iisg.nl>
vrijdag 10 oktober 2014 12:05
Aan: Nieuwsarchief
Onderwerp: IISH Newsletter October 2014

Newsletter | October 2014

New App for Historical Family Reconstruction

On 8 October, Historical Sample of the Netherlands launched a new application which offers the opportunity to search for persons in the marriage certificates of the provinces of Groningen and Drente from the 19th and early 20th century.

Read more

Report of IISH Symposium Slavery in the Dutch Empire

In the Netherlands slavery is usually associated with Atlantic slavery. The current view of slavery might even be called 'Atlanto-centric'. Wrongly so, was the opinion of the three young researchers who spoke at the IISH-KNAW Symposium of 25 September

Read more

Latest Leading Archives Digitized

The Institute has digitized a subsequent segment of its leading archives and collections. The archives of Emma Goldman, the Jewish Bund, Jules Guesde and many others are now fully available to view via the Institute's catalogue

Read more

Upcoming Events

- Workshop Nederlandse Smokkelhandel
- Conference Ethiopian Revolution at 40
- Presentation de Volkskrant-IISH Thesis Award

Read more

Follow us on    or forward to a friend

MailChimp.

unsubscribe from this list | update subscription preferences

--
This message has been scanned for viruses and dangerous content by