Remarks

The Linz Conferences are gatherings of ITH's members. Participants of the Linz conferences pay only a – compared to similar conferences – modest fee. Further expenses (insofar as they cannot be covered by subsidies) are covered by the member institutions. Participants delegated by members are thus given priority.

Please notice:

Punctual registration is essential. Regardless of the duration of stay, each participant delegated by member organizations will be charged EUR 150,- including accommodation (twin rooms), meals and congress materials or EUR 100,- without accommodation. Non members will be charged EUR 220,- including accommodation (twin rooms), meals and congress materials or EUR 150,- without accommodation. All accommodations provided by the ITH have modest standard. A selection of rooms in Linz which can be booked individually is accessible at: http://www.ith.or.at/konf_e/links_2013_e.htm

The conference fee is to be levied by all participants and is to be paid in cash at the conference secretariat in Linz. Speakers, chair persons and members of the preparatory group can apply for travel grants (in Linz) in the height of the conference fee.

Travel grants in exceptional cases

We have some smaller funds to finance travel expenses for a limited number of those participants who are not official delegates of any of our member institutes. A basic application, with motivation should be sent to ith@doew.at latest by 1 June 2013. A decision will be announced by e-mail by 1 July 2013.
