Focus

Trade union seminar on the post-2015 framework

In a few days trade union and SSO representatives from all around the world will gather in Istanbul to discuss the trade union engagement in the post-2015 development framework process. In a series of debates and working groups involving, among others, speakers from the UNDP, European Commission and the ILO, participants will reflect on the lessons learnt from the MDG framework, the possible shape of the new framework as well as ways to foster trade union engagement in the process. The seminar is organised by the TUDCN.

EC releases a communication on social protection in development

In the end of August the European Commission published the Communication on Social Protection in European Union Development Cooperation. The document offers a useful perspective on the role and implementation of social protection in development policies and work. Trade unions particularly welcome the support for the Social Protection Floors approach (including the ILO Convention 102 and the newly adopted ILO Recommendation 202 concerning National Floors of Social Protection) as well as the recognition of the role of social partners, decent work and labour standards.

Dutch Ministry of Foreign Affairs approves new Trade Union Co-financing Programme 2013-2016

The end of August brought good news from the Dutch Ministry of Foreign Affairs for FNV and CNV. In June 2012 both trade unions submitted a proposal for their new programmes to the Dutch Ministry. The evaluation process took all summer and in the last week of August both organisations received a positive feedback from the Ministry that approved the two programmes. A total amount of €49 million is available for FNV's and CNV's activities in developing countries. The new programmes will have a four year duration and start in January 2013.

Open Forum is developing a new Resource for CSO Development Effectiveness

To further support country level implementation and strategic planning around the Istanbul Principles and the enabling environment, Open Forum is developing a Practitioners Activity Guide. The aim of this new resource is to train CSO practitioners to transmit the concepts and collective experience behind the International Framework and the accompanying Toolkits, and to help CSOs take those first conceptual and planning steps on the path to improving their effectiveness. At present, the Practitioners Activity Guide is in its pilot testing phase. Between August and October 2012, one testing workshop is planned in each of the following regions: Africa, Asia, Latin America, MENA, North America and Europe. Based on the inputs from these consultations, a finalized version of the Practitioners Activity Guide will be completed by early December 2012.
