Editorial

On 12th December, European Foreign Affairs Council adopted a second set of conclusions on the role of the private sector in international development. The document follows the EU Commission's communication, released on 13th May 2014, and the first set of Council conclusions, published on 24th June 2014.

Although the conclusions bring about positive improvements regarding the support to local SMEs, social enterprises and cooperatives, unfortunately they fail to recognize decent work and social dialogue as fundamental pillar to sustainable development

Trade Unions have released a detailed statement.
