Dear Sephis contact,

For your information, the chances that the Dutch Ministry will continue funding Sephis beyond 2011 are very small.

We are trying very hard to find other means of financing the programme, and we are also looking into alternative ways of keeping Sephis alive. One of the ways to sustain Sephis is via the use of social media. To prolong the Sephis network as an online community and to keep you informed, please join us on Facebook and LinkedIn.
