The US media and the debacle in Iraq

A column written by Chelsea (Bradley) Manning from his prison cell points to the criminal role played by the US media in foisting the Iraq War onto the American people.

News & Analysis

Washington seeks alliance with Tehran as civil war in Iraq intensifies

The fact that the United States is publicly asking for Iran's help is a measure of the desperation of American policy makers as Washington's decades-long policy in Iraq and the broader Middle East implodes under the weight of its own contradictions.
